"Most words evolved as a description of the outside world, hence their inadequacy to describe what is going on inside me."

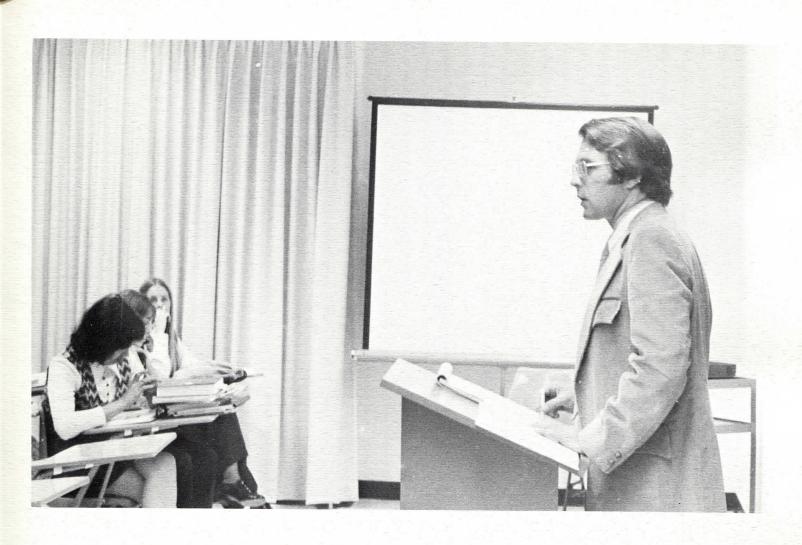

Hugh Prather

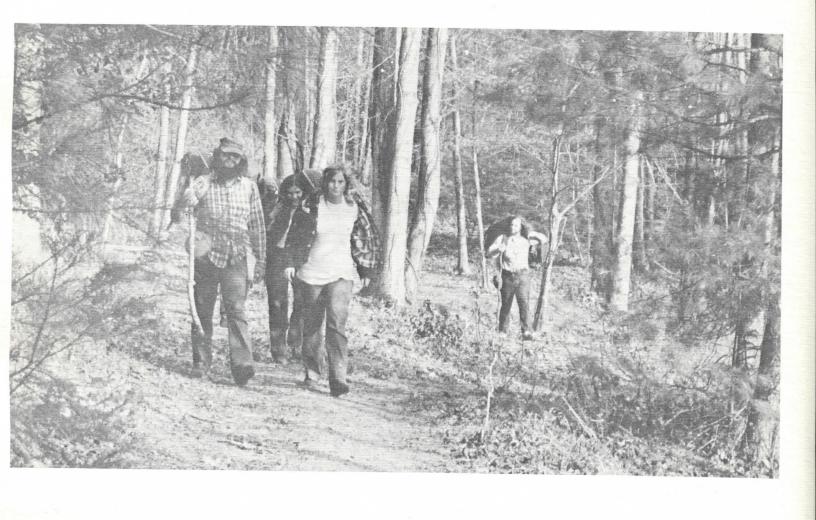

"For communication to have meaning it must have a life. It must transcend "you and me" and become "us". If I truly communicate, I see in you a life that is not me and partake of it and you see and partake of me. In a small way we then grow out of our old selves and become something new."

Hugh Prather

Chest Congestion: "Wear a flannel shirt with turpentine and lard on it all winter."

The Foxfire Book

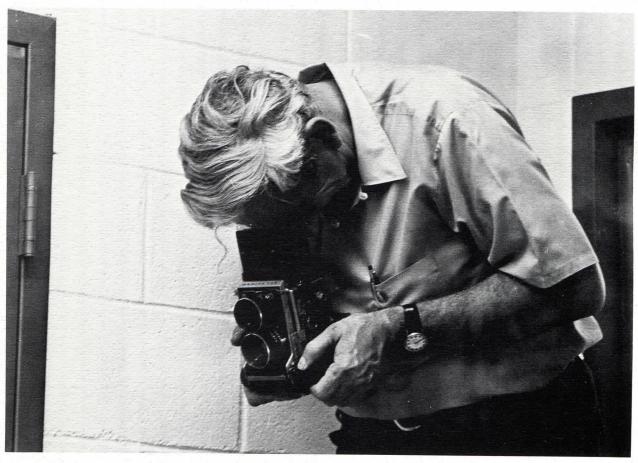

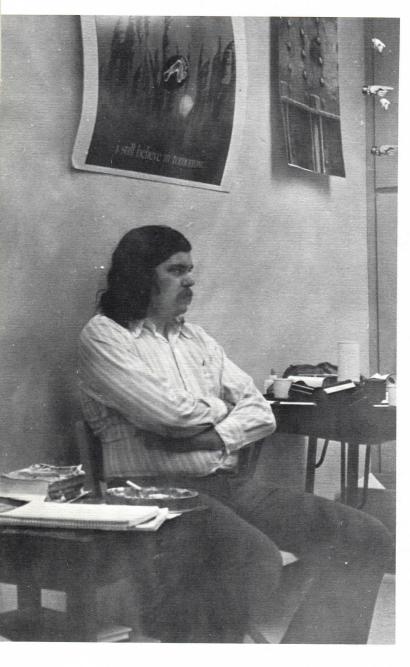

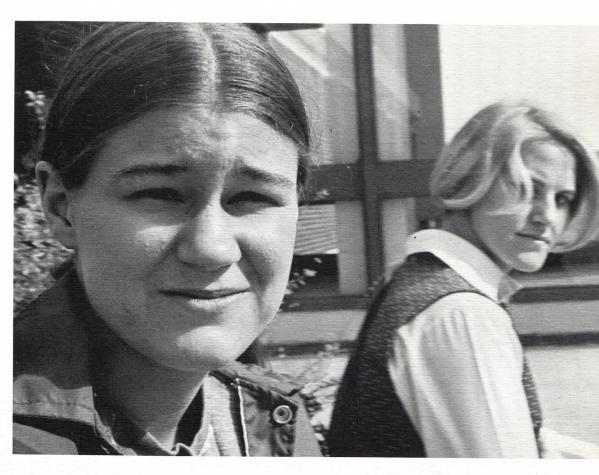

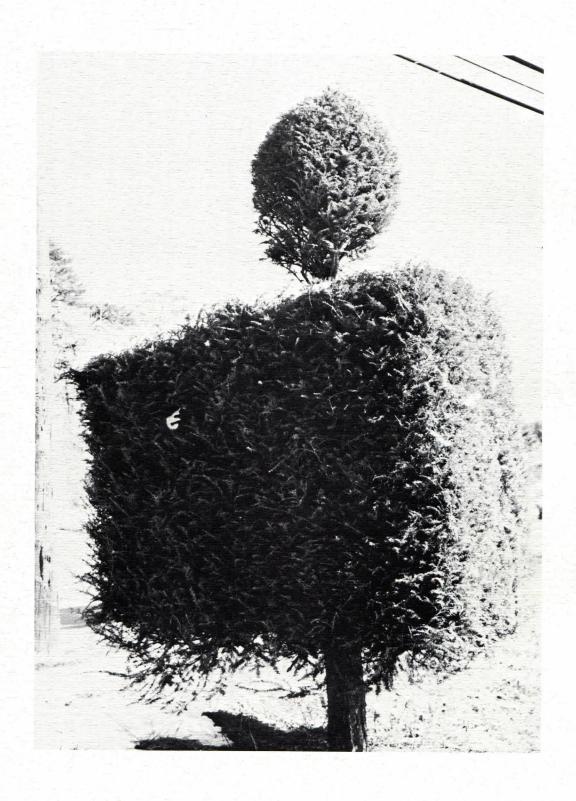

"We may find that we learn most of all from those political and social dissenters whose differences with us are most grave; for among the young, as among adults, the sharpest criticism often goes hand in hand with the deepest idealism and love of country."

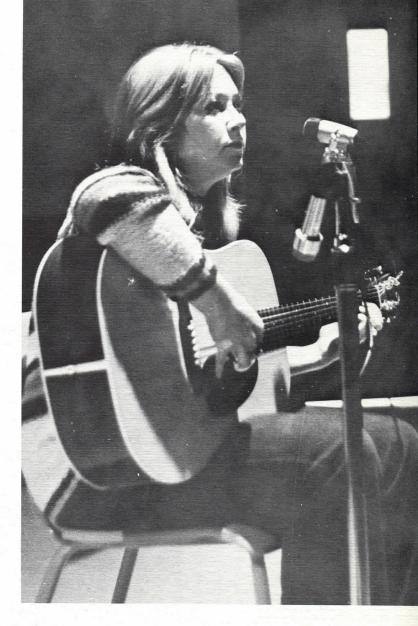

Robert F. Kennedy

"He who tries to play a game for which his type does not fit him violates his own essence with consequence that are often disastrous."

Robert S. De Ropp

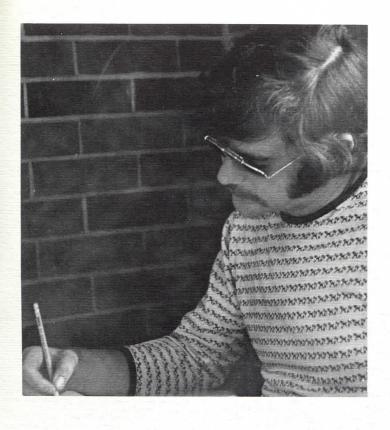

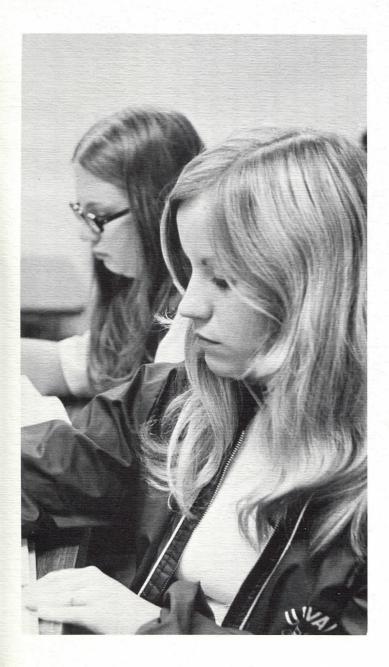

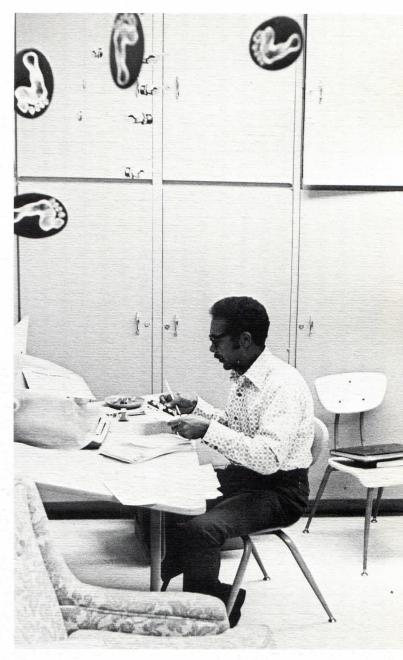

Sam McKinney Annual Staff

I climbed the highest mountain,
And reached for the nearest star.
I reached again
And again,
But only in vain.
Disappointed and tired,
I descended to the valley for rest.
I closed my eyes
And laughed
As I ran through the heavens,
And danced on the stars.
Fred Parham

William Hooper Annual Staff

Short Off

Reaching this top is roughest of all, The end reward the greatest. Here God has built a haven fair, For those who wish to find it.

We camp beside an emerald lake, An uncut gem of matchless beauty, Still untouched by man's improvement, It remains as He intended.

Out of the roots of a large Black Gum, Tapped from that eternal fountain, Pours a spring of dancing water, Sweeter that the kiss of woman.

When walking on the rock cliff's face, Summer's eminent fury threatens, Forces us to look for shelter, Beneath an overhanging boulder.

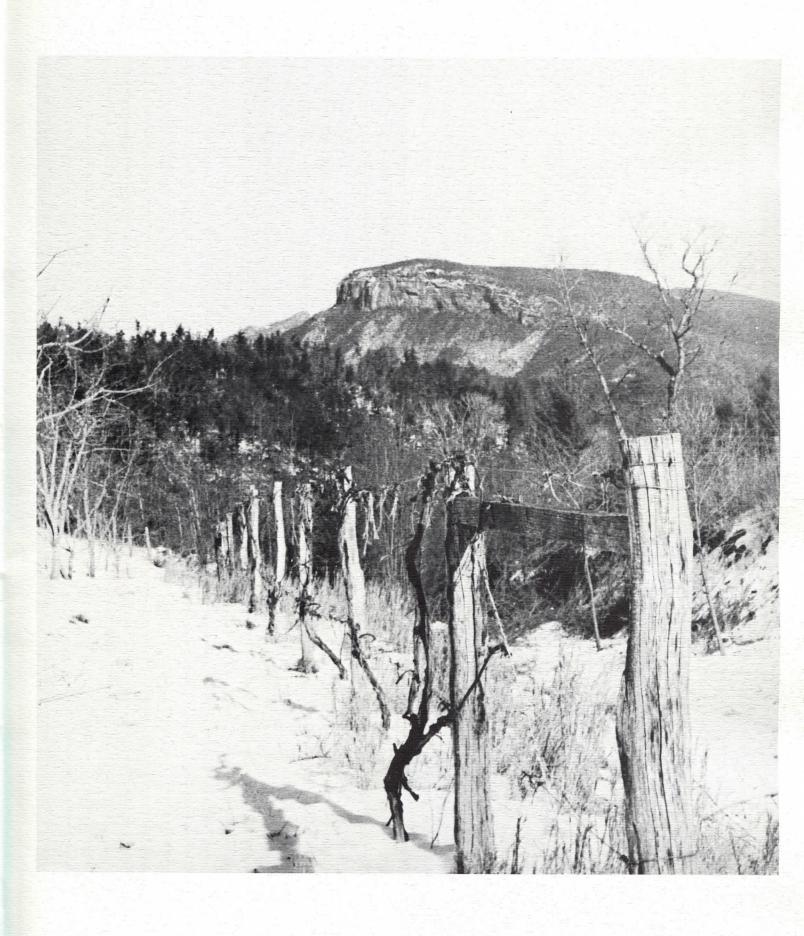

As the rain in mass profusion, Leaves not a single stone undrenched, We watch a certain little droplet, Fall for what seems like forever.

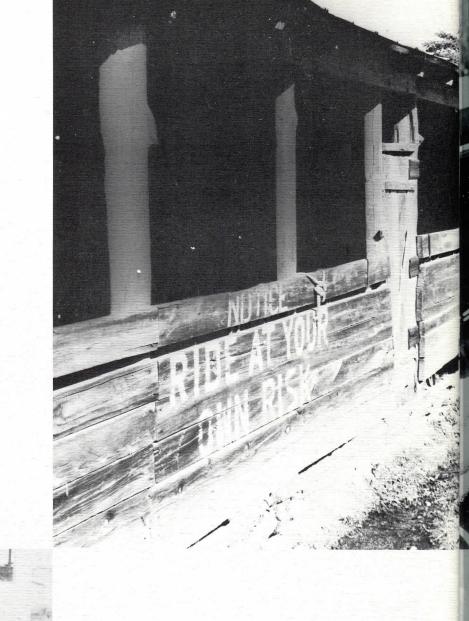

Now the sudden storm is ended, Just as swiftly as it began. What a gift we have been given, Picked to fill this niche in time

John Louis Garrou, II

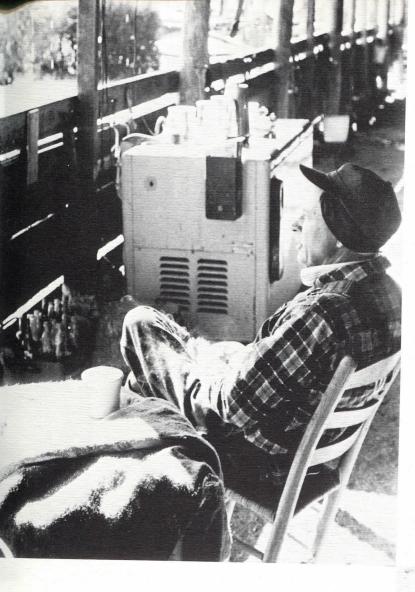

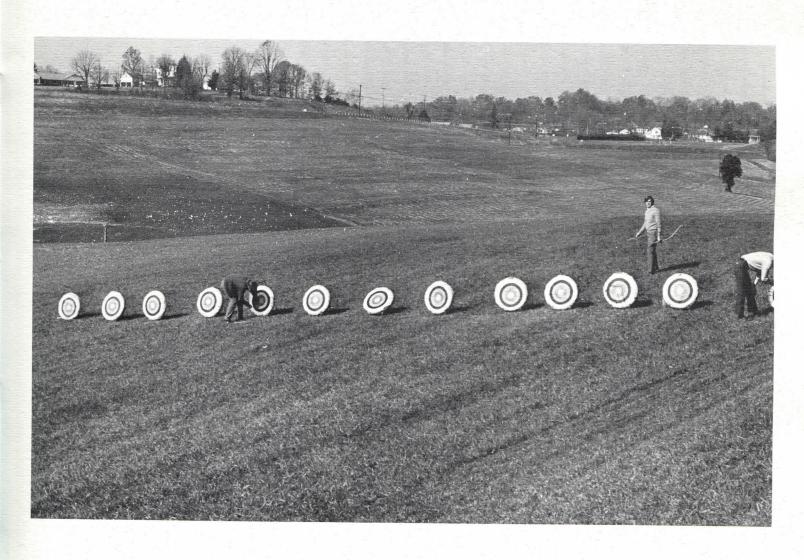

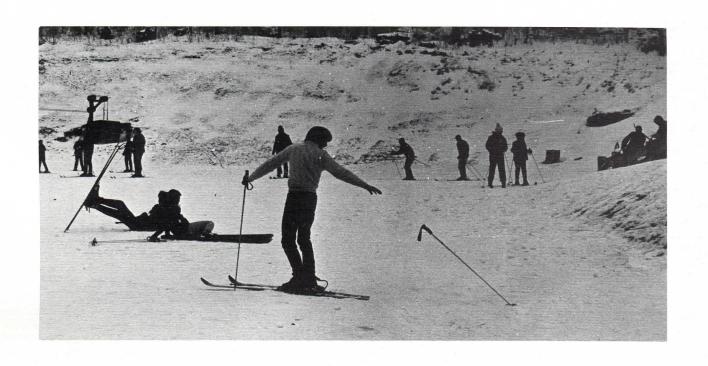

Archery: If you aim at nothing, you will hit nothing.

The Spice of Life

Tommy Fite Annual Staff

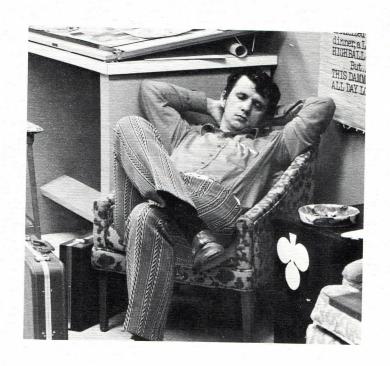

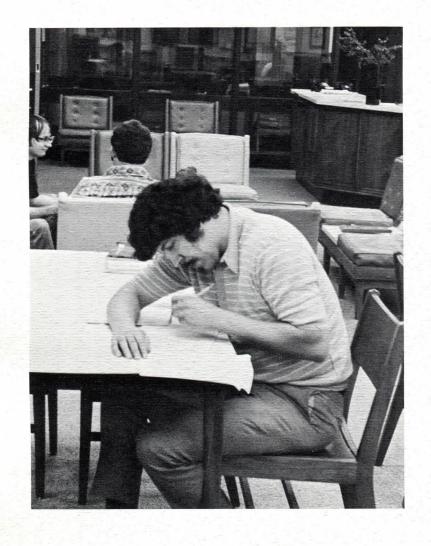

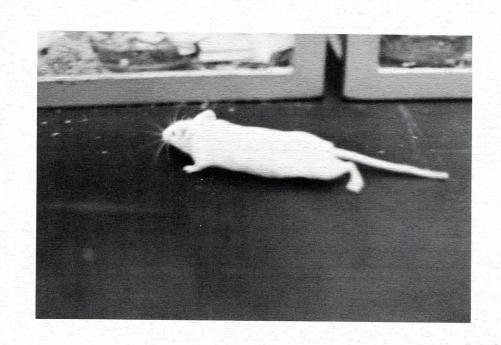

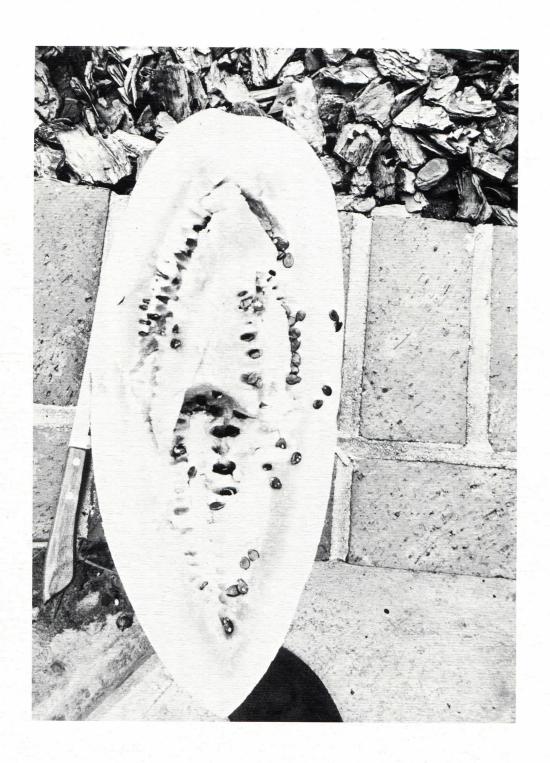

''Could a greater miracle take place than for us to look through each other's eyes for an instant?'' Henry David Thoreau

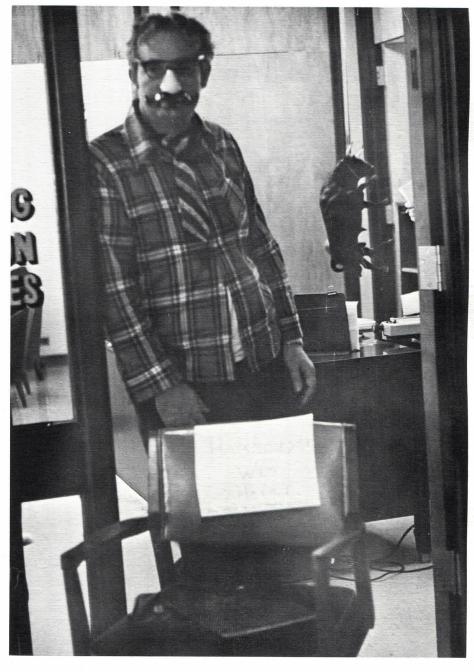

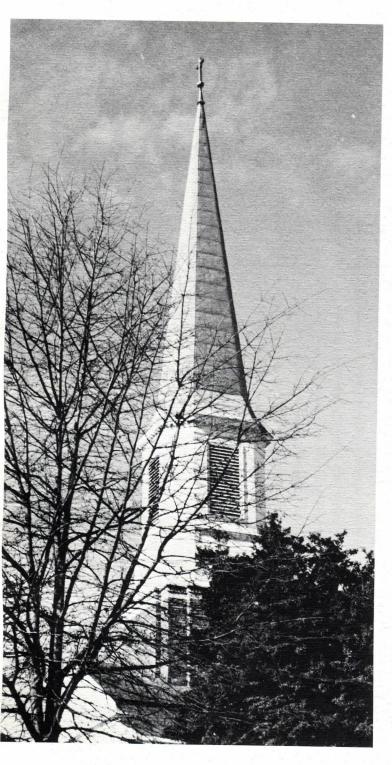

"Life games reflect life aims. And the games men choose to play indicate not only their type, but also their level of inner development." Robert S. De Ropp

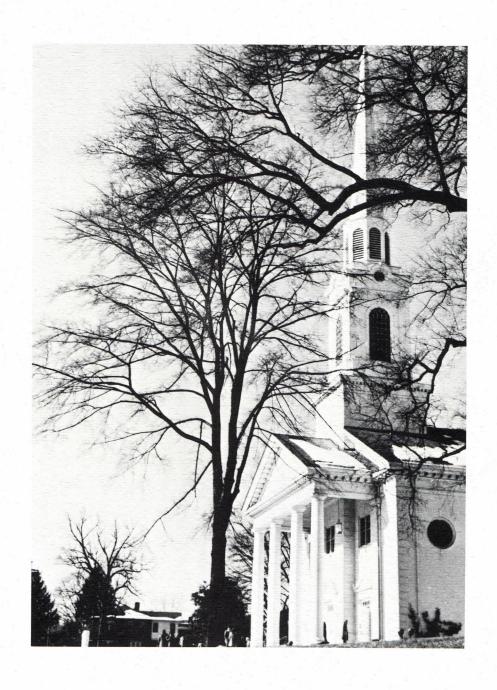

"While civilization has been improving our houses, it has not equally improved the men who are to inhabit them."

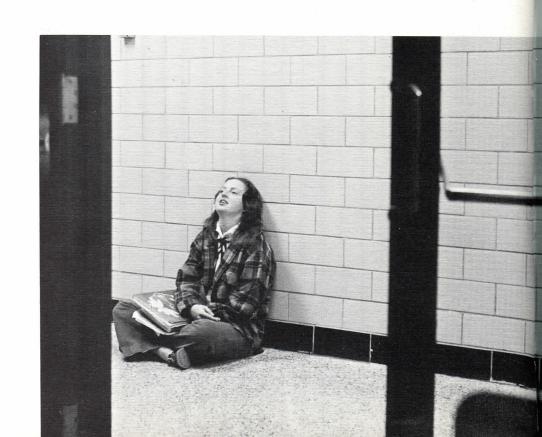

Henry David Thoreau

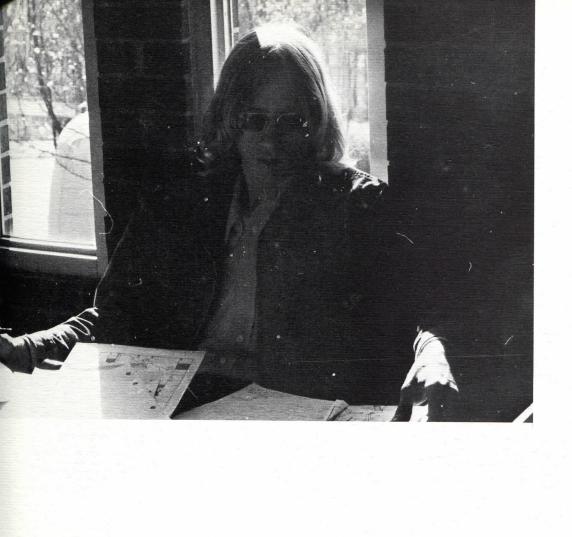

In the solitude of our minds we can look into the future . . . for ''we know what we are, but not what we may be.'' Shakespeare

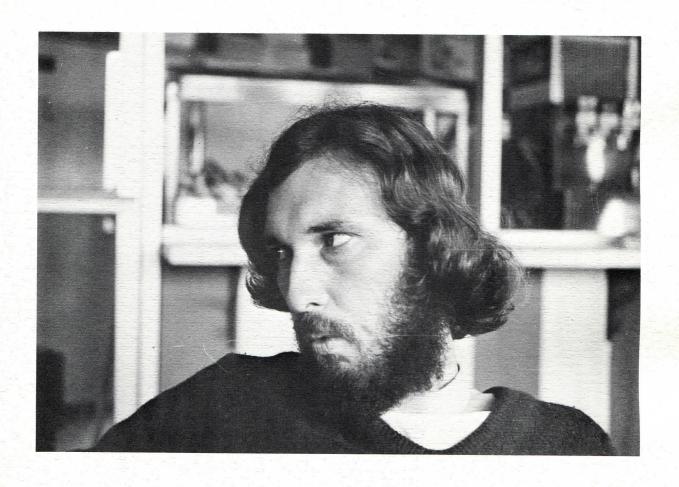

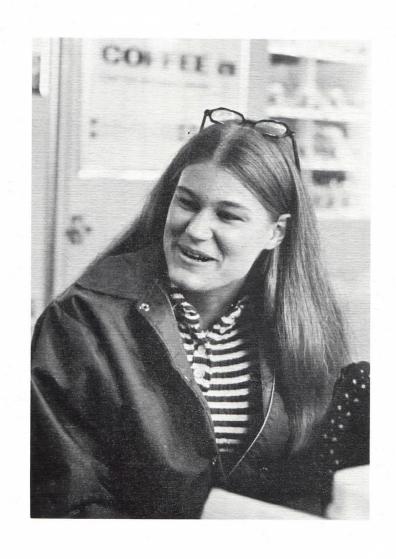

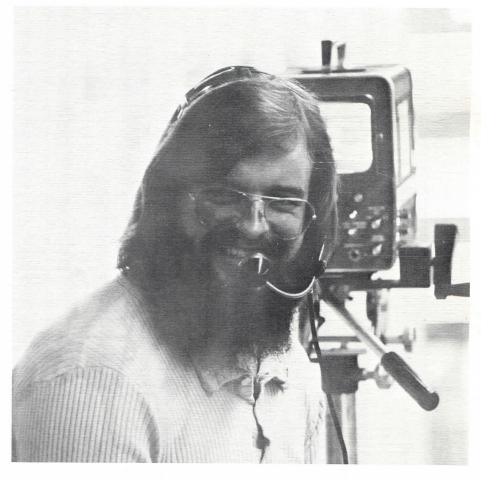

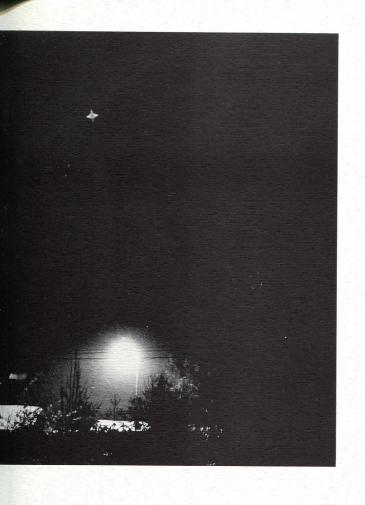

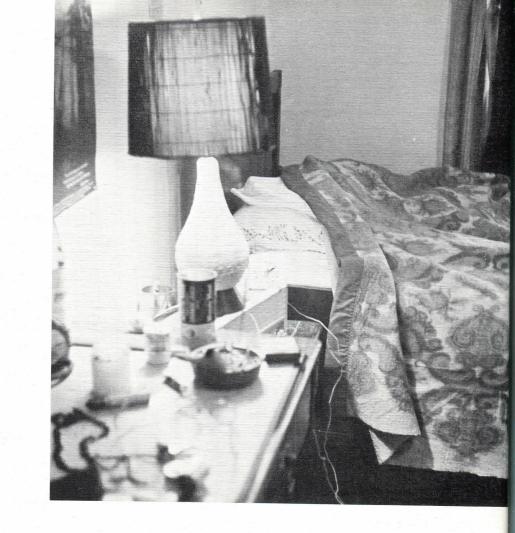

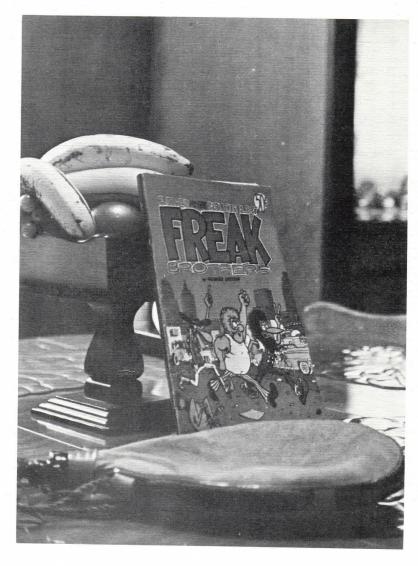

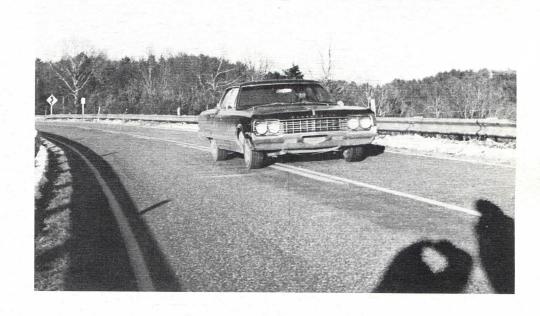

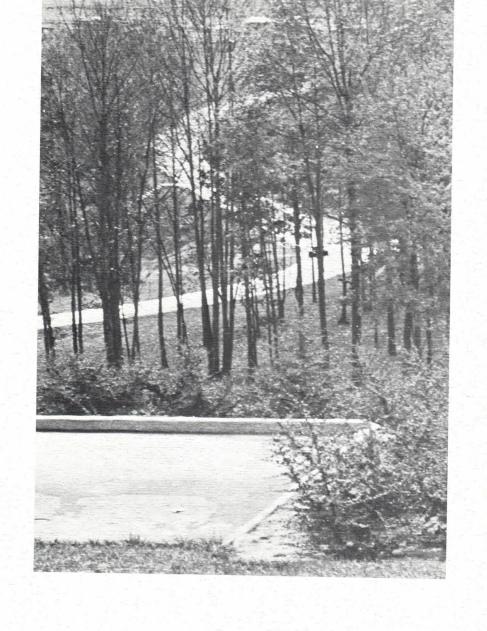

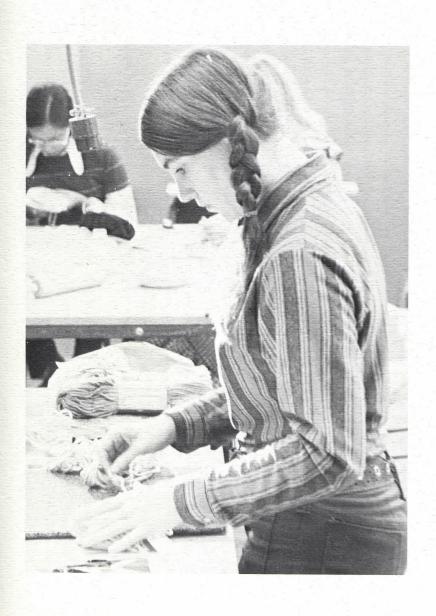

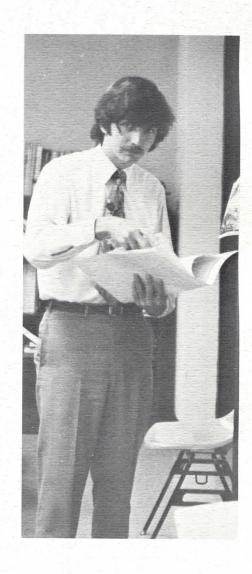

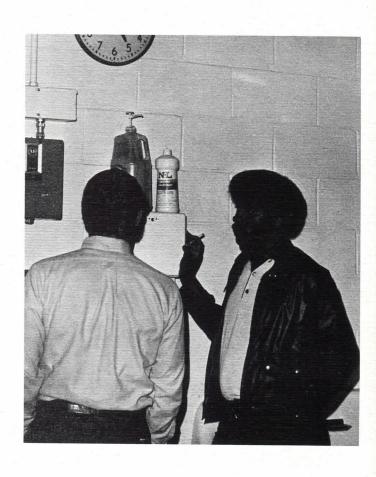

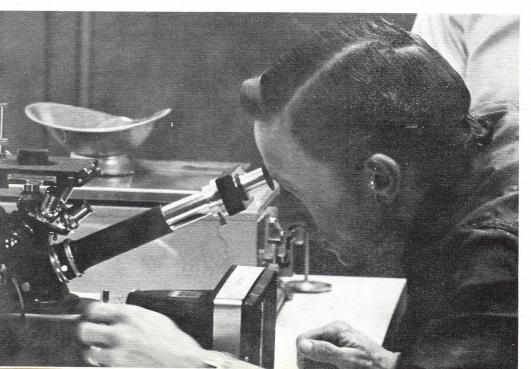

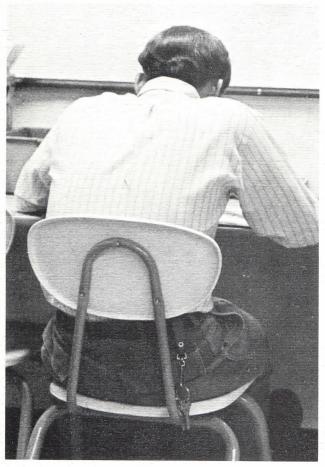

Ellen Yoder Annual Staff

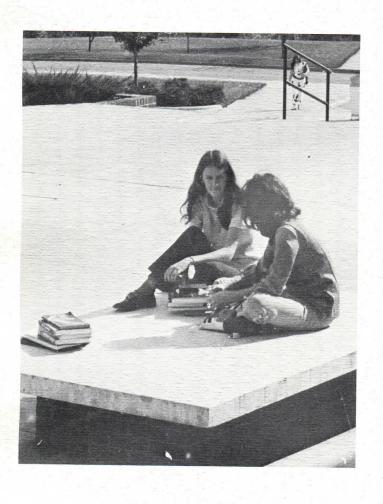

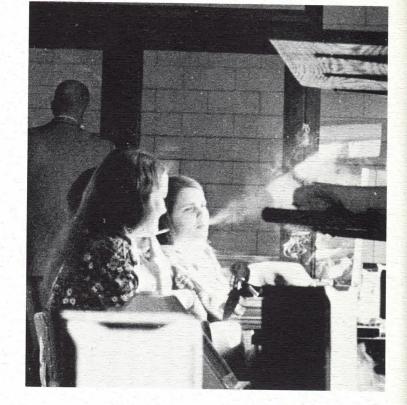

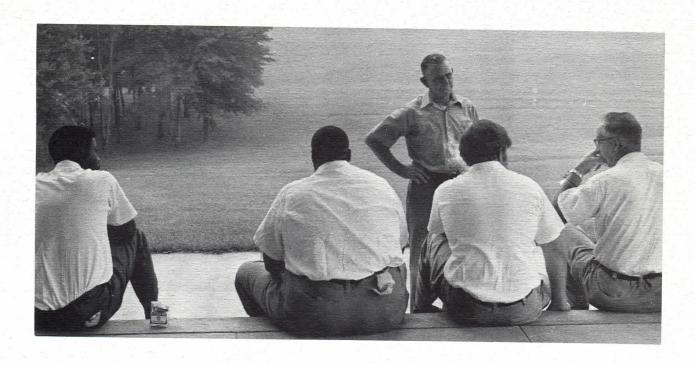

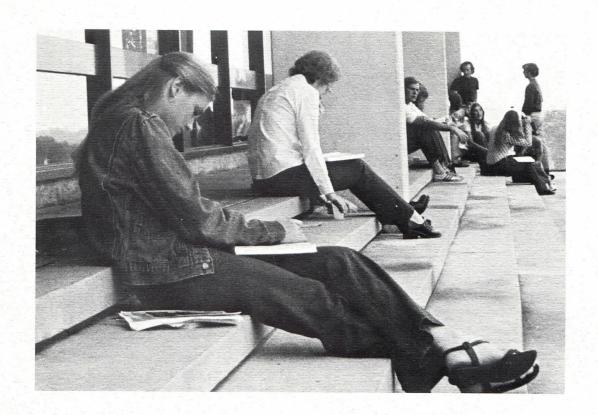

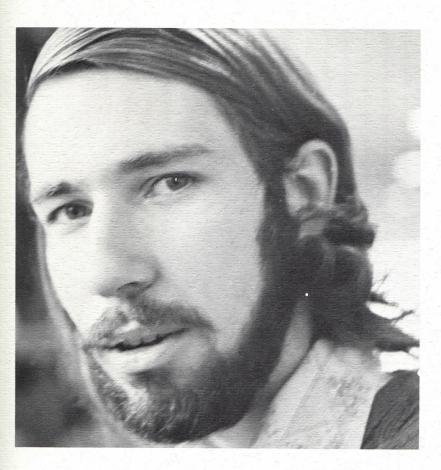

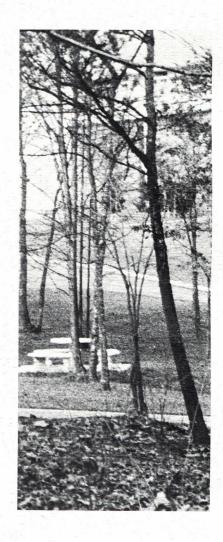

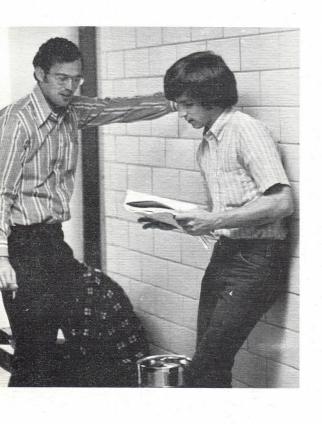

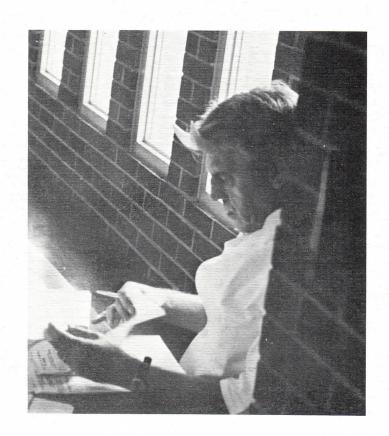

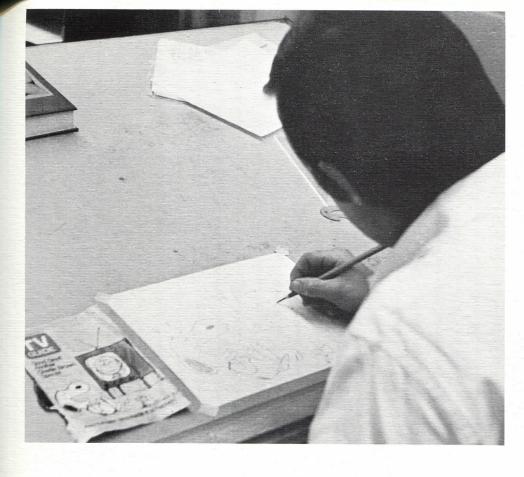

John Edmundson Annual Staff

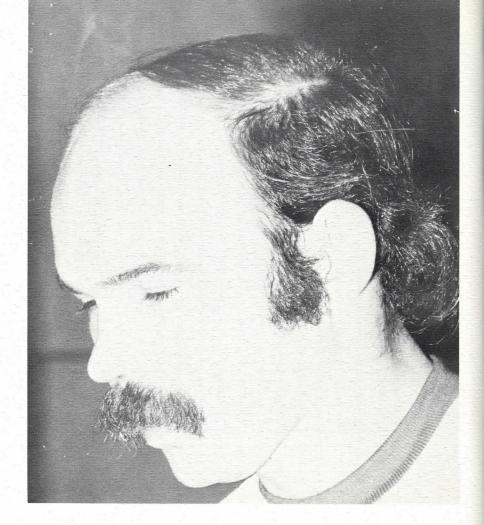

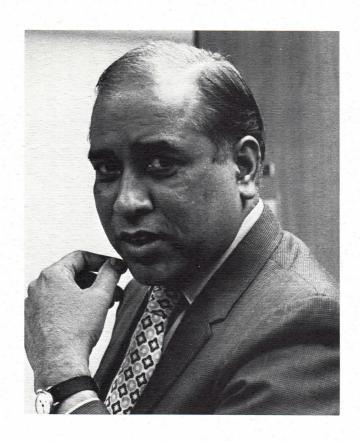

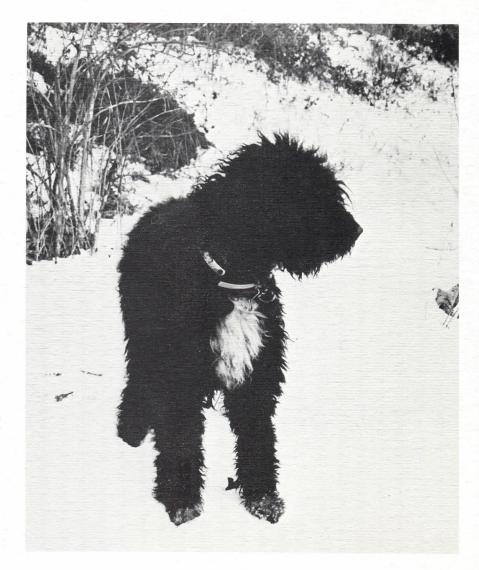

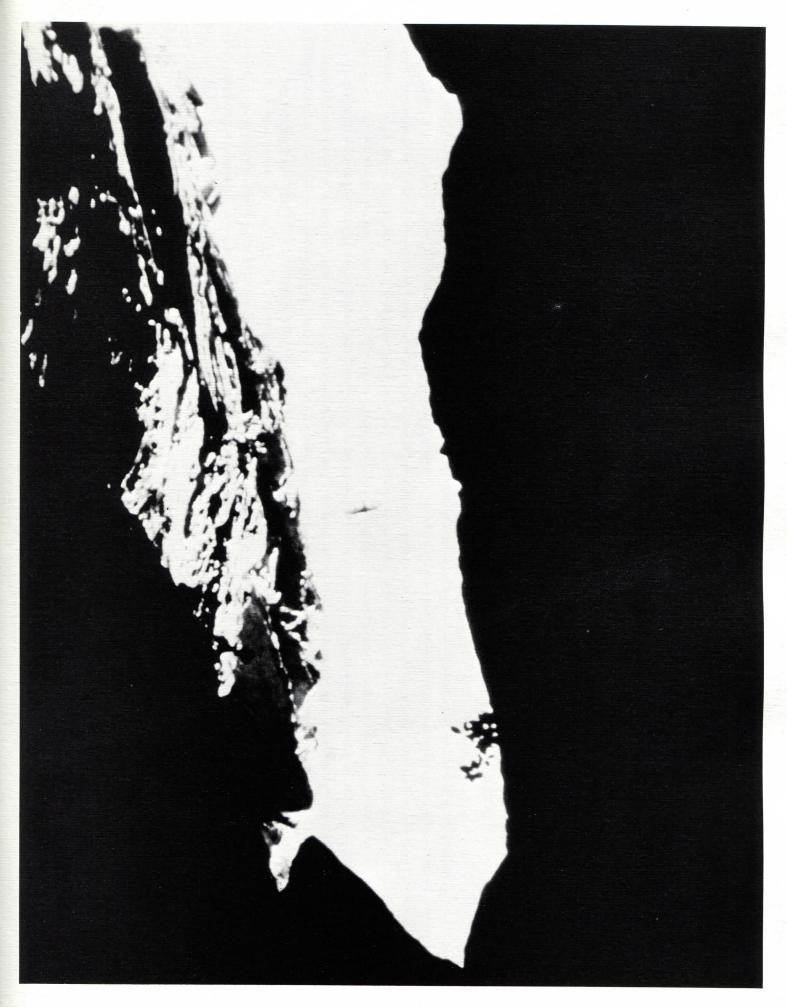

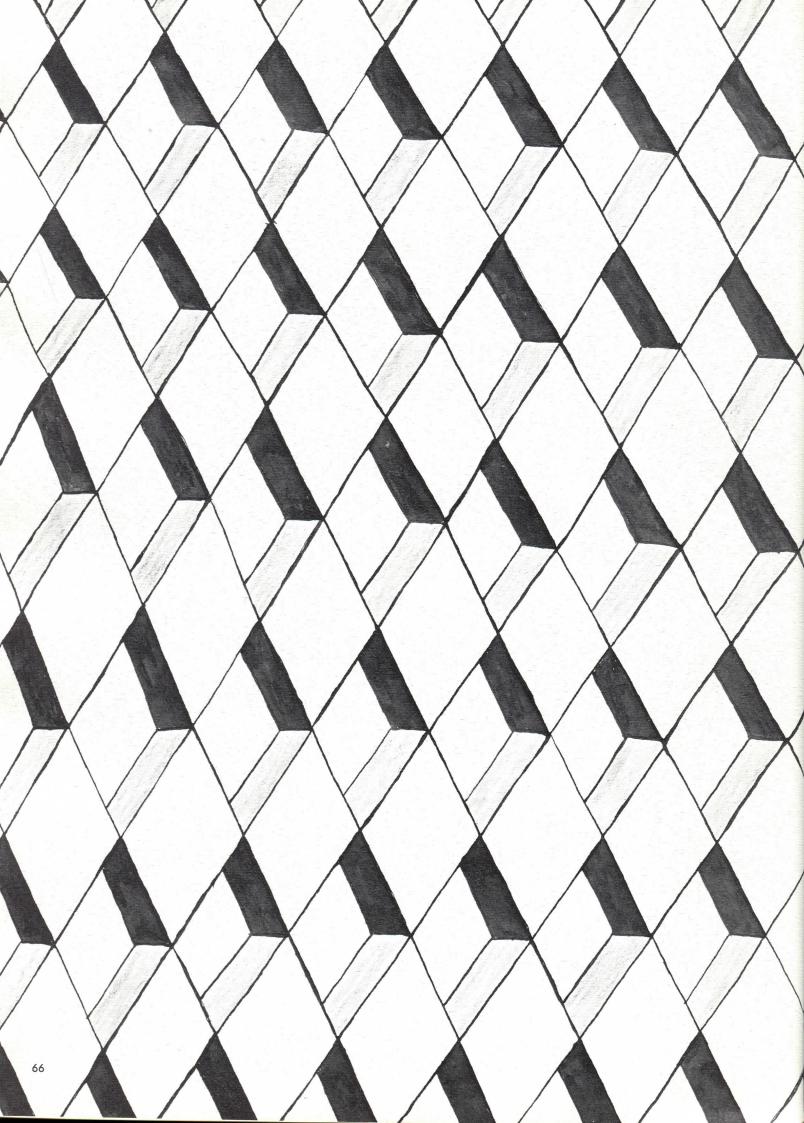

Fill a house with animals, and you fill it with life. Hubert DeGivenchy

His one sorrow was not solitude, it was that other gulls refused to believe the glory of flight that awaited them; they refused to open their eyes and see.

Jonathan Livingston Seagull

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor. those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. "When true love broke my heart in half I took the whiskey from the shelf And told my neighbors when to laugh I keep a dog, and bark myself."

"Ghost cries out to ghost — But who's afraid of that? I fear those shadows most That start from my own feet." Theodore Roethke

"The souls of some people are like school blackboards on which Time writes signs, rules, and examples that are immediately erased with a wet sponge."

Kahlil Gibram

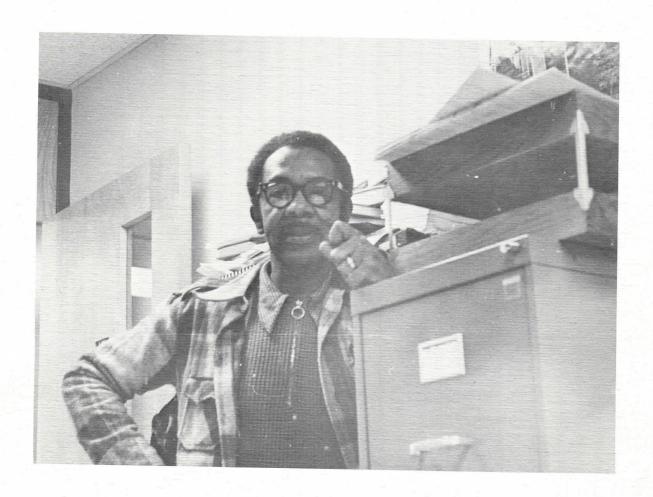

"He felt better for his decision to be just another one of the Flock.

There would be no ties now to the force that had driven him to learn, there would be no more challenge and no more failure. And it was pretty, just to stop thinking, and fly through the dark, toward the lights above the beach."

Jonathan Livingston Seagull by Richard Bach

"But, if I tell you who I am, you may not like who I am, and it is all that I have."

John Powell, S.J.

Plans

I plan to love as much as possible And hate as little as possible.

I plan to learn as much as possible And forget as little as possible.

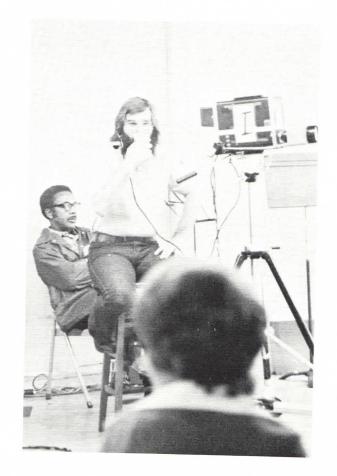

I plan to teach as much as possible And preach as little as possible.

I plan to find as much as possible And lose as little as possible.

I plan to reach out as much as possible And withdraw as little as possible.

I plan to live as much as possible And die as little as possible. Micheal G. Philyaw

The game is over; The Happening '73 goes to press. Our goal was to present the HERE and NOW at Western Piedmont in a fashion which will be appreciated and remembered in the years to come.

Our players (staff) were few, but we played our best. We extend thanks to Mr. Carter and Mr. Miller and Fred for all their help and advice with the photography and art; Mary, Jacque and Lynn of Student Services were invaluable help with proof-reading and typing.

Dickie McGee, Gene Smith, Andy Corpening, Rick Lonon, John Patrus and Nancy Harris — to these who stepped in at the last minute to pick up the many fumbles — thanks!!!
